

ASCPA Leadership attend the 2011 AICPA Spring Council Meeting in Washington, D. C. (L to R) Seated: Mark Anderson, Michael Daggett, Cindie Hubiak and Peggy Ullmann. Standing: Julie Klewer, Layne Simmons, George Cohen and Dan Baran.

Laura Leopardi, CPA, was crowned the new Ms. Arizona United States 2011 in May. Leopardi also won the Pageant's Ms. Congeniality Award. Leopardi plans to implement her personal pageant platform of Achieving Health and Wellness At Any Age. Through her work as a board member and volunteer of the West Valley Cancer Connection, she promotes education and awareness of making healthier choices in daily living for all ages.

Matt Holdsworth, CPA, was honored by the Prescott Chamber of Commerce with its Visionary Award for leadership for community leaders under the age of 40.

Henry & Horne, LLP, admitted Collette Kamps, CPA, and Marilyn Mays, CPA, as partners. Partner Mark Eberle, CPA, received the 2011 Segner Award from the Scottsdale Area Chamber of Commerce.

James M. Susa, CPA, was appointed as chair of the Arizona State Board of Tax Appeals and will also serve as chair of the State Bar of Arizona Tax Section. James Busby, CPA, was elected as chairman-elect of the Section.

Tony Finley, CPA, was elected as a public member of the board of governors of the State Bar of Arizona.

The team at The Accountant's Office was honored by the Better Business Bureau with their prestigious 2011 Business Ethics Award.

The Father's Day Council of Tucson named David J. Cohen, executive vice president at BeachFleischman PC, as a 2011 Father of the Year.

Universal Technical Institute promoted Bryce Peterson, CPA, to vice president of information technology.

Jordan Taylor, CPA, joined Capital Review Group as director of taxation.

During Gary Freed's celebration of his retirement from Clifton Gunderson, he presented his son, Eric, with his CPA certificate. Eric works with Ernst & Young in Texas.